ISN'T IT HOT?

This expression you hear everybody expressing. Why shouldn't they, because IT IS. You hear another expressed. It is this: Doesn't the Citizens Drug Co. sell goods cheap, and haven't they put in a nice line of drugs. Also they are giving 20 per cent discount on the

that ever came to Oregon. Their line of Croquet Sets are complete, but they want to sell them and in order to do so, will sell them so cheap that you will almost think they are giving them away. They have four ball, six ball and eight ball sets, and if you want a professional set, they will get them for you. They also have the nicest line of the celebrated Lorenz Perfume that took the prize at the St. Louis exposition, are handled by them.

Toilet Articles and Perfumes

Prescriptions

are a specialty with this house and they fill dozens of them a day. Their new and fresh line of drugs and accuracy of filling, makes them the best prescription Pharmacists in the city.

They handle a full line of Pitkin's Best Paint, all the best lines of Stock Food, and their line of Machine Oil cannot be surpassed, as such oils as the Ruddy Harvester, Castor Machine, Etc., at the very lowest prices.

Please call in and see us. We are always ready to wait on you

-A. H. Bailey and family, and the Misses Lucy and Nelle Bragg, are attending the Rock Port Lecture Congress.

-Miss Carrie Holloway, who was a guest of Misses Barbour the past week, was granted a marriage license Tuesday, by the Buchanan county authorities, to unite her life for weal or woe to Bulna V. Bell. She is the daughter of Dr. Holloway, who a number of years ago practiced his profession here and in Forest City.

-Elmer E. Price and wife stopped over for a few days' visit here with relatives and former school chums. He has for the past year been at the head of the business college at Paducah Ky., but has resigned this position to enter the auditing department of the Panama Canal Commission, and will leave New York for Panama about August 14th. We congratulate Elmer and trust that he may become so acclimated as to escape the diseases peculiar to that part of the earth. His wife will accompany him to Panama.

-The safest rule to pursue when traveling is to wait until the train stops before getting off. It was reported to us that some of the delegates from here to the late convention of the Y. P. A., of the Evangelical church at Atchison, were so very anxious to get off the train that they could not wait for the train to stop. With the assistance of some friends near by they were induced to wait the action of the engineer to bring the train to a full stop.

-Jim Thuma, of St. Joseph, is home for a while until Swift & Co., rebuild their buildings recently destroyed by fire.

-Mrs. Margaret Jones and daughter, Mrs. John Garrett, of St. Louis, are on a brief visit with friends in the Shiloh neighborhood.

-Mrs. Henry Spittler, of Dayton, Ohio, will arrive to-day, for an extended visit with her mamma, Mother Sarah Proud, of Mound City.

-Charley Watson, of the railway mail service and his two children, of Kansas City, are enjoying a visit with their many Oregon friends and relatives.

-Clyde Crider and sister, Mayme, of Maitland, left Tuesday for California and the Northwest. The former will enter the Stanford University, and the latter, after an extended tour, will return home.

-Miss Maude Wyatt, of DeKalb county, spent Sunday last with Miss Lennie Miles, of New Point. They were chums at the Stanberry Normal. Miss Wyatt will teach the Union Star school in Andrew county, this coming school year.

-Mrs. Minnie Murray Cunningham of Libreville, Africa, will leave for her home here this week, and should there be no delays, is expected to arrive here early in October. Her husband, Rev. Cunningham will not leave for home until some time next spring.

-Dr. C. M. Wyatt, osteopath, has planted his Jacob's staff among us and will practice his profession here. He comes with excellent credentials and we trust his expectations may be realized. Dr. Wyatt has opened an office in the Peacher building on the east side.

-We handle the choicest and very freshest of Candies, Nuts, Fruits and Ice Cream, and serve cold lunches with not coffee. We try our best to please and to cater to the likes of our patrons N. L. PIERCE.

-Ed Intermill got his buggy smashed up Sunday night. When about a quarter of a mile west of J. Wright's he came into the road from the south as two teams were passing and one of them ran into his rig, breaking it down. Rev. Alexander took Mrs. Intermill into his buggy and brought them to New Point. Mr. Intermill walked home, leading his horse.—Mound City News.
